

THE CABINET

Sherman Certainly Wanted for Secretary of State,

But it is Not Probable That He Will Accept the Position.

The Senator Will Do So Unless Some Time This Week When the Matter Will Be Settled—The Secretary of the Treasury Will Be Selected Soon.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 11.—(Maj.) McKinley attended church Sunday morning and later enjoyed a long drive. He will leave for Canton Monday morning at 11 o'clock and expects to remain there until the first day of March. Maj. McKinley said a friend Sunday that this week would be an important one in organizing his cabinet and administration. The formation of the cabinet hinges upon the salient and pivotal positions of secretary of state and secretary of the treasury. It is quite probable that both of these important cabinet portfolios will be tendered and accepted by the end of the week. Senator Sherman has had some communication with Maj. McKinley and he will go to Canton tomorrow with the president. He is now preparing to accept the position of secretary of state, but it is not necessary that he should have made up his mind to accept a cabinet appointment. His inclination is to remain in the senate, where the work is systematic and familiar, and where he can regulate the amount and quality of it to a very considerable degree. He feels that the president said one of his friends of long-standing Sunday, to undertake the severe and arduous task of the secretary of state and difficult governmental department, but on the other hand he has had long experience as chairman of the committee on foreign relations and many of his most valued friends are earnestly urging him to close his notable public life by a brilliant administration of the department of state.

The natural and timely desire of M. A. Hanna to go to the senate may have much to do with Mr. Sherman's appointment to the cabinet if he accepts a portfolio. Mr. Hanna has been one of Mr. Sherman's most devoted friends. He had done a great deal for him in a political way, and Mr. Sherman doubtless feels that he owes his last election to the senate partly to the zeal and support of Mr. Hanna. His relations have been friendly since the time when Mr. Sherman did not accept the offer of a cabinet position to the senate will remain close to Mr. Hanna for personal and political friend of long standing. It is rumored that Senator Joseph B. Foraker of Ohio will be invited to visit Canton while Mr. Sherman is there. Upon the other hand, Mr. Sherman's friends are not without the senatorial aspirations of Chairman M. A. Hanna depend. Gov. Bushnell, of Ohio, will appoint Mr. Sherman's successor. Mr. Sherman's term of office will be for two years if he goes into the cabinet. He is a devoted friend of Mr. Hanna's and it is feared that he would not appoint Mr. Hanna to the vacancy for the reason that he belongs to opposite factions of the party and have been at odds in a political way only for several years. The department previously mentioned by politicians that while Messrs. Foraker and Bushnell are thoroughly friendly to Maj. McKinley and desire to appoint him loyal and efficient, they do not wish to build up Mr. Hanna's personal prestige and to give the Ohio senator a position of promise or intimation of the course he will pursue which has been obtained from Mr. Bushnell, while with the grip at his home in Springfield. The relief is current in Ohio that unless Gov. Bushnell will consent to appoint Mr. Sherman to the cabinet, he will himself accept a cabinet appointment, so the conference at Canton this week will involve the probable resignation of a cabinet portfolio, a seat in the United States senate and the future state of Mark Hanna in national politics.

A $200,000 Fire at Minneapolis.

One week ago Sunday a great fire at Minneapolis, Minn., broke out at 1 o'clock Sunday morning. The fire destroyed the packing house of the Anchor flour mill, owned by the Pillsbury-Waaban Mill Co. Loss $200,000, fully insured. The damage originated in the third story of the building from an unknown cause, and for a time threatened the destruction of the entire mill, the fire wall, however, preventing further damage.

Attended Sailed.

LEBANON, Pa., Jan. 11.—James M. Gossler, cashier of Lebanon national bank, the largest banking institution in this county, made a desperate dash for his life, by shooting himself through the head. He was still alive at a late hour Sunday night, but died of his wounds at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. It is supposed to have been the cause of the shot. Gossler died at 10:15 Sunday evening.

THE CONGRESS.

It is Believed the Pacific Railway Bill Will Be Defeated.

The Nicaragua Canal Bill Not To Be Passed by the Present Congress.

Senators Dismantling the House of Commons—These Do Not Appear to Be Any Desire to Push His Resolutions Regarding Cuba.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Voting upon the Pacific railroad funding bill and amendments will occupy the house Monday. The vote is likely to be close but it is believed the bill will be defeated. For the remainder of the week appropriation bills will probably have the right of way. The managers of the house are determined that no measures imposing additional charges either upon the credit or the revenues of the government shall receive consideration at this session if they can prevent it. The Nicaragua canal bill and several other propositions involving financial responsibilities may therefore be considered dead so far as this congress is concerned.

On Saturday afternoon the house will constructively listen to eulogies upon the late Speaker Crisp, of Georgia. In the senate Monday Mr. Mills, of Texas, is booked for a speech on Cuba. His text will be the resolution he introduced a few days ago recognizing the independence of the republic of Cuba, declaring it to be the duty of the senate to pass such a resolution.

In the senate Monday Mr. Mills, of Texas, is booked for a speech on Cuba. His text will be the resolution he introduced a few days ago recognizing the independence of the republic of Cuba, declaring it to be the duty of the senate to pass such a resolution. The extreme position taken by Mr. Mills leads to the belief that his speech may be, to some extent, sensational, and that his criticism of the attitude of Mr. Olney may be severe.

Early in the week the attempt will be made to secure a vote on the Oklahoma free homestead bill, and when the passage of the way the Pacific railroad refunding bill may be taken up, unless the house shows such hostility to Pacific railroad legislation as to make the attempt hopeless. No little interest is being manifested in the forthcoming national congress and the members, which will assemble in this city on February 17 next. Several ladies, active in the movement, are met for the purpose of discussing the movement, which will be prominent in the program, among them being Mrs. Alalie Hofer, editor of the Kindergarten magazine; Mrs. Sangster, of Harper's Bazaar; Miss Anna Schriever, State Normal school, Michigan; Miss Mary Norton, of the National kindergarten women; Chauntay, and others. Leading measures that will engage the attention of the congress will be the proposed bill including into the minds of children the principles of patriotism and citizenship, the movement of all qualities tending to ennoble the minds of the young and pure, and thorough mental training generally. The first meeting of the congress will be open at the Arlington hotel on that date, previously mentioned, with the opening of the congress by a reception to the congress by Mrs. Cleveland, which will be given at 11 o'clock a. m.
